

I love satellite radio and would be happy to pay for expanded services. I listen at work and at home. I do not listen to commercial radio because it offers none of the music or news that I am interested in. Please maintain a commercial free alternative to the garbage the likes of Clear Channel offer. Thank you,